RADZIWIILL SAYS HE WAS MIS-QUOTED.

German Prince Repudiates the Interview Published in La Liberte—Declares He did not Utter any Remarks Denunciatory of the United States.

Special Cable to The Call and The New York Herald.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—Copies of the Herald containing the reported interview with Prince Radziwill arrived this morning. It caused much astonishment in political circles that the Prince could have uttered any such idea concerning the United States as that Europe should make a coalition against her.

The Prince, when I saw him at his palace at Pariser Platz, the most astonished of all and exceedingly annoyed. He said that his feelings regarding the United States were echoed by what Baron von Bulow recently said to the Reichstag—nothing but the most friendly. He further declared he had not talked to any one for publication and certainly not in the sense indicated. He said later in the day to one of the Ministers of State that he had made some friendly remarks about France, but even those especially referring to the sentiment of the Emperor were not uttered. The whole interview was grossly exaggerated.

Later the Prince sent to me the following letter for publication:

"To the Special Correspondent of the New York Herald: In answer to your question about the interview I can assure you that you could not be more astonished than myself at the article of La Liberte. I received M. Salanson in Paris because of the recommendation of a friend and because I thought it was a personal affair. M. Salanson found a third person in my room. There was a short general conversation, but I had no idea I was being interviewed.

"I have certainly not said any word which could be interpreted in a sense unfriendly for the relation of Germany and the United States. I decline any responsibility in the article of La Liberte.

"PRINCE ANTHONY RADZIWIILL."

At the Foreign Office Baron von Bulow being shut up studying the budget for to-morrow, I was received by Baron von Richthofen, Under Secretary of State, who frankly and briefly said the Foreign Office looked upon the part referring to the United States in the interview as a mere invention, untrue and in no way reflecting German sentiment, which is friendly in every way end in regard to the Samoan question ready to arrange matters amicably as might seem best for all concerned.

MARYLAND HONORS REAR-ADMIRAL SCHLEY.

She Presents Her Popular Hero With a Magnificent Testimonial of Her Affection and Esteem.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—Maryland today, through Governor Lowndes, presented Rear-Admiral Schley with a superb medal, in gold and diamonds, as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by the people of Maryland, his native State, and of their appreciation of his services to the country during the late war with Spain. Incidentally, he was cheered by assembled thousands as he rode through the streets of Baltimore, and at night 400 of the representative men of the city and State joined in a banquet given in his honor.

Admiral Schley, accompanied by Mrs. Schley and General Miles, and escorted by a reception committee, came from Washington to receive the State's gift.

CRISIS IN SPAIN IS IMMINENT NOW.

Government Expects Defeat on the Bill for the Cession of the Philippines.

MADRID, Feb. 28.—A ministerial crisis is imminent. The Cabinet is convinced of the impossibility of avoiding defeat in the final vote on the bill for the cession of the Philippines, as the opposition may increase, while the Government cannot hope to gain a single additional supporter.

Later news states that the Government was defeated and a new Cabinet was being formed with Sagasta as the probable premier.
